By the Court.

Be it Remembered That on the day and year aforesaid Came into Court William M. Harvey a native of Ireland Subject to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and petitioned the court that he be admitted a citizen of the United States of America in conformity to the provisions of the act of Congress of the United States entitled "An Act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject." And the said William M. Harvey having then proved in due form of Law in open court by the oath of Michael Savery a competent and disinterested witness that he had known the said William M. Harvey for five years and upwards that during that period the said William M. Harvey had been resident within the Limits and under the Jurisdiction of the United States, and one year at least next preceding the said application within the Limits and under the Jurisdiction of the State of Delaware That since the Depoent had known the petitioner he had behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and further the said William M. Harvey the petitioner having then declared on oath before the said court that all the facts stated by him in his said petition were true, and further that he would support the constitution of the United States and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate State or Sovereignty whatsoever and especially to the King of the whereof he was before a subject, pursuant to the provision of the act of Congress of the United States passed April 14. 1802, entitled "an act to establish an uniform rule of naturalization and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject," and that he arrived in the United States on the 13th Aug. 1804.

By the Court.

At a District Court of the United States holden at New Castle by adjournment, in and for the District of Delaware on the Twentieth day of September in the Year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen of the Independence of the United States of America the forty fourth Before the Honorable John Fisher Esquire Judge of the Court aforesaid.
Be it Remembered that on the day and Year afo. Came into Court Andrew Armstrong a native of Ireland subject to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain & Ireland, & petitioned the Court that he be admitted a citizen of the United States of America in conformity to the provisions of the act of Congress of the United States in such Cases made and provided, and the said Andrew Armstrong having exhibited to the said Court the following certificates to wit. Philadelphia County Jo. Be it remembered that on the nineteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen Andrew Armstrong a free white person of the age of twenty one years & upwards, being an alien who has arrived in the United States after the passing of the act of Congress entitled "an act to establish an uniform rule of naturalization & to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject" passed on the 14th day of April A.D. 1802, and who is desirous to be naturalized did repeat himself to the Clerk of the General Quarter Sessions of the peace in and for the County of Philadelphia in manner following that is to say that he the said Andrew Armstrong was born in the County of Armagh in Ireland on or about the Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & ninety one, and is now about the age of twenty one years, that he was born a member of the British Nation and owed allegiance to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland that he migrated from Belfast to the United States and arrived at the port of New York on or about the first day of April A.D. 1812, and that it is his intention to settle in Philadelphia County. - Andrew Armstrong. -
